THE

FEMALE LIME TREE.

NAMES.

A.

G. Φιλυρα.

L. Tilia fœmina.

I. Tiglio.

G. Linde.

F. Tilleul.

S. Teia.

D. Linde.

PLACE.

These are Planted for Shady walks.

DESCRIPTION.

The Wood of this Tree is white, light, and gives no resis-vers Tools. The Bark is smooth, and Brownish. on th 'tis a light Green: with small protuberances. The Leaves Green, smooth and shining, on the Backs whiter, and the R they are serrated round the Edges. from the same place the Springs another long. narrow and smooth Leaf 5. of a Greenish ing one Rib the whole length, from the middle of it Grows the Flo veral Flowers 3. at the end, having a Cup of five, whitish Green leave 4 with five greenish Yellow Leaves with a Seed Vessel, the Style a Chives of the Same Colour top'd with Apices cover'd with Yellow 5. Seed 6. A Flower 7. Cut to shew all the parts.

VIRTUES.

They are Used as a Cephalic —

T. Sheldrake delin.